

ST. ADALBERT'S BOOK OF MEMORIES

Do you have any of the following?

- ✦ Class photos from St. Adalbert's School
- ✦ Old photographs of parish societies, first communion groups, confirmation groups, processions, etc.
- ✦ Photographs of the church interior before the 1970s renovations

St. Adalbert's is looking to expand its parish archives and put together a permanent display, as well as a Book of Memories that will be made available to parishioners. We need your help in gathering items to include. Photographs may be dropped off at the parish rectory during business hours, brought to weekend masses, or can be picked up (call Charlie Penasack at 832-3147 for arrangements) and will be returned once copies have been made. Be sure to ask relatives and former parishioners, too. Thank you for your help in documenting our parish's history!

CEMETERY SUNDAY...

"The Church has always urged us to pray for the dead. She invites believers to regard the mystery of death not as the last word on human fate but as a journey toward eternal life".

..... Servant of God, Pope John Paul II

In the United States, the Catholic Cemetery Conference has designated the First Sunday in November as Cemetery Sunday. This year, Cemetery Sunday falls on All Souls Day, Nov. 2nd. This special combined day of faith offers the chance to join in a day of prayer and remembrance by visiting one of the Catholic faith's most sacred places, a Catholic cemetery.

The Catholic cemetery is an essential institution of the Catholic Church, and part of its heritage.

It is hoped that this year, on All Souls Day, people take the time to pray for and remember the dead in a Catholic cemetery. Cemetery Sunday is also a time to reflect on one's own mortality and a reminder that one's spiritual life is eternal.

Join us in a celebration of the Mass at the Lancaster cemetery at 1 PM on this special day of remembrance.
