Pro-Choice=No Choice

Last week, you were given some information to take home and read concerning The Freedom of Choice Act (FOCA). Today, you are being asked to sign postcards that will be sent to our State Senator & Assembly Representative. Sheets are available with the addresses. Fr. Roy is providing the postage. Thank you for your participation. You can also take action by going to www.nyscatholic.org

PLEASE, START THINKING OF LARGE FUND RAISERS!!
WE NEED YOUR IDEAS!!

Don't forget! We still need some input with Fund Raising ideas. Bills still have to be paid. Even if you can't attend a meeting, please give Fred Morley your ideas. Thank you.

PLEASE VOLUNTEER; WE CAN USE YOUR HELP!

DONATIONS ARE STILL BEING ACCEPTED FOR THE COST OF FUEL.
ENVELOPES ARE IN THE BACK OF CHURCH.

Passing of Sr. Alma (Barbara) Ide, O.S.F.

Many of you will remember Sr. Alma from her years living at the Convent, where she used to cook for the nuns that lived there. A Mass of Christian Burial was held on Thursday at Stella Niagara, where she spent the latter years of her life and where her remains are now buried. May she rest in the peace and love of the Lord.

Prayer Basket

Today, we will take a few moments to write down your “prayer petitions”, and place them in the special basket at the back of church. Each parish in our vicariate, consisting of St. Katherine Drexel, Villa Maria Convent, Blessed Trinity, St. Martin de Porres, SS. Columba/Brigid, St. Ann and St. Lawrence, will have a “traveling” Prayer Basket. Each Friday, the basket will be passed to another parish until the baskets have traveled to each parish. On the 7th week all baskets will go to one parish for a combined Prayer Service. During the Prayer Service people will be encouraged to witness how their prayers have been answered.

50/50 Split Club

Linda Sisson was the winner of the February 50/50 Split, with a prize of $215. Get into this month’s drawing by picking up an envelope from the back of church, depositing $5, and placing it in the Collection basket no later than March 22. Drawing on March 29.
