Keeping the children's best interests top priority is not always easy in the turmoil of divorce. Parents can learn how to develop a "professional" relationship with their co-parent for the benefit of the children- and oneself. Our Kids: Parent Education and Awareness programs, offered in most counties of the Diocese, are designed for any parents who have experienced conflict regarding custody and/or visitation issues. For details, call your neighborhood Catholic Charities office or 896-6390.

You have made generous sacrifices on behalf of the Catholic Charities Appeal for 2011. Because of your efforts the poor will be fed and clothed and given medicine. Counseling services will be made available to families and individuals who would otherwise not have been able to get professional help; it is through the Appeal that people receive counseling for domestic violence, addictions and a myriad of personal and family problems. You are a gift to Catholic Charities and to neighbors of all faiths. We have exceeded our goal because of you. Thank you.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The apostles were just being practical when they asked Jesus to "dismiss the crowds to go buy food." Jesus knew there is always enough when we place our trust in the Father, even with just 5 loaves and fishes. Trust is the bridge to miracles.

As precious as children are, they take a lot of time and care. They can both bond a couple and put stress on a marriage. If you have children, what virtue have they prompted you to develop?

Ignatian Retreat in Daily Life. Since the mid 1500's, countless followers of Jesus Christ—laity, clergy, and religious, men and women, young and old—have made the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. Nearly 400 in the Buffalo area alone have made a modified version of the Exercises in a small group experience at St. Michael's Church in Buffalo. For brochure, application and/or information about the next retreat beginning this Fall, call Father Dick Hoar, SJ at 854-6726 ext. 19; Sister Johnice, CSSF 894-7030; or Gini Schultz at 837-6020.

Parenting Perspective. To keep our tap water pure, support your city government that inspects and insures safe, affordable drinking water for all. Show your children what it means to be an advocate for the common good.

PRAY FOR . . .

...the healing touch of Jesus' hand for those who are ill, especially: Sophie Bogdan, Emily Kaminska, Frances Opoka, Anna Leweck, Patricia Milas, Celia Kosinski, John Berra, Irene Wypych, Russell Serewicki, Nikolas Myszkiewicz and all the sick of our parish. If you have a name to add or a deletion, please call the rectory office.

IF YOU KNOW OF SOMEONE WHO IS HOSPITALIZED, PLEASE NOTIFY THE RECTORY.

Whatever gift each of you may have received, use it in service to one another, like good stewards dispensing the grace of God in its varied forms."
