It's the height of summer and most Moms are ready for the children to head back to school soon. If you feel the difficulties and challenges facing you and your children everyday are just too much now, don't wait-talk with a Catholic Charities social worker at a neighborhood office near you. Parenting Perspective. At some times of the year and in some places we have too much water (floods) and at other times not enough (droughts). Pray at dinner for those whose lives are impacted by these extremes. Be thankful for what you have.

August 7, 2011

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The demands of a family can be so overwhelming we feel walking on water would be easier. When Jesus was pressured, He dismissed everyone, so he could be "by himself and pray." When overwhelmed and stressed, go to a quiet place and surrender your pressured feelings to the Lord using Peter's prayer in today's gospel: "Lord, save me."

Marriage Moment

Be tolerant of the human race. Your whole family belongs to it—and some of your spouse's family does too. You may be able to joke about your own family's eccentricities but be cautious about ridiculing your spouse's family.

Ignatian Retreat in Daily Life. Since the mid 1500's, countless followers of Jesus Christ—laity, clergy, and religious, men and women, young and old—have made the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. Nearly 400 in the Buffalo area alone have made a modified version of the Exercises in a small group experience at St. Michael's Church in Buffalo. For brochure, application and/or information about the next retreat beginning this Fall, call Father Dick Hoar, SJ at 854-6726 ext. 19; Sister Johnice, CSSF 894-7030; or Gini Schultz at 837-6020.
