Labor Day is a yearly national tribute to the contributions American workers have made to the strength, prosperity and well-being of our country. Not only do you work hard to help this country remain strong and prosperous, you also show compassion and generosity by returning a portion of that hard-earned money to your God and to help others through your support of Catholic Charities. Enjoy your Labor Day and accept our gratitude for your labor and your gifts.

Parenting Perspective. My how the pendulum swings. Baby boomers often criticized their parents for being uptight. Too many Generation X, Y, and 'whatevers' wish their parents weren't so out of sight. What kind of parent are you?

Our Daily Bread for September will feature three priests named Joe. Fr. Paul D. Seil is joined in the kitchen by 3 classmates all named Joe and all great cooks! Fr. Joe Moreno, Fr. Joe Porpiglia and Fr. Joe Gullo each take a turn reminiscing as they prepare their favorite recipe to share with Fr. Paul. Saturday, Sept. 10 at 5:30 am and Noon on WKBW-TV Channel 7.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The key word in today's gospel is "listen." We cannot change another person; not alone, not with others and not with a whole Church. All we can do is state our position and "if he listens to you" then he/she can take the steps necessary to change themselves. Change comes from within.

Sunday, September 11
National Grandparents Day,

It is an opportunity to celebrate grandparents and elders who have nourished our lives. Our new revised 2011 FREE packet of materials is filled with ideas for celebrating BUT has items also for grandparents themselves to enjoy. So, you don't need to do much to make the day itself holy and special. It's all ready for you. AND you may find it full of life giving ideas to use all year round! Contact Family Life Ministries at 847-2210 or email familylife@buffalodiocese.org for your FREE packet.

Bishop Kmiec Reflects on the Anniversary of 9/11

As we reflect on the tragic events of September 11, 2001, we continue to pray for the repose of the souls of the victims whose lives were cut senselessly short. We offer thanksgiving for the first responders who gave so selflessly in rescue and recovery efforts, and we continue to pray for all whose lives were touched in some way by this dark day. But out of darkness comes light, and we need to continue to work together to build a society filled with acceptance, light, and we need to continue to work together to build a society filled with acceptance, understanding and peace. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called Children of God" (Matt: 5:9) What the U.S. Bishops wrote 10 years ago hold true today. This is a time for dialogue with Muslims, Jews, fellow Christians and other faith communities. It is a time for witness to live our values of mutual respect, human dignity and respect for life and security without resorting to discrimination. It is a time for hope in God's grace, in ourselves, and in one another. May God bless America.
