Let Us Respect the Holy Eucharist

Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacrament;
Instruction Redemptionis Sacramentum, 92 & 107.

Regarding receiving Holy Communion, the Church states: "Although each of the faithful always has the right to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, at his choice, if any communicant should wish to receive the Sacrament in the hand, in areas where the Bishops' Conference with the recognition of the Apostolic See has given permission, the sacred host is to be administered to him or her. However, special care should be taken to ensure that the host is consumed by the communicant in the presence of the minister, so that no one goes away carrying the Eucharistic species in his hand. If there is a risk of profanation, then Holy Communion should not be given in the hand to the faithful."

In accordance with what is laid down by the canons, "one who throws away the consecrated species or takes them away or keeps them for a sacrilegious purpose, incurs a latae sententiae excommunication reserved to the Apostolic See; a cleric, moreover, may be punished by another penalty, not excluding dismissal from the clerical state". To be regarded as pertaining to this case is any action that is voluntarily and gravely disrespectful of the sacred species. Anyone, therefore, who acts contrary to these norms, for example casting the sacred species into the sacrarium or in an unworthy place or on the ground, incurs the penalties laid down. Furthermore all will remember that once the distribution of Holy Communion during the celebration of Mass has been completed, the prescriptions of the Roman Missal are to be observed, and in particular, whatever may remain of the Blood of Christ must be entirely and immediately consumed by the Priest or by another minister, according to the norms, while the consecrated hosts that are left are to be consumed by the Priest at the altar or carried to the place for the reservation of the Eucharist.

*General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 98
& Code of Canon Law, can. 910 §2*

The acolyte is instituted for service at the altar and to assist the Priest and Deacon. It is his place principally to prepare the altar and the sacred vessels and, if necessary, to distribute the Eucharist to the faithful as an extraordinary minister.

St. Anthony of Padua, Priest & Dr. of the Church
Saint Anthony's Feast Day is celebrated in Church on June 13th. In our chapel on Tuesdays, we've recited the perpetual Novena Prayer of St. Anthony over the years. During the last year, the number of followers of St. Anthony drastically decreased; too many people stopped participating in this devotion. Unfortunately, on Tuesday June 11th, we will recite the Perpetual Novena of St. Anthony for the last time.
