Just a Reminder

We will have blank letter forms available for anyone who would like to have a note encased in the cross of the new tower. Letter forms are available after each Mass or come to Kolbe for Coffee Sunday on the first Sunday of October. As you can tell the finishing touches are being done to the new copula so there isn't much time left. Ask an Usher for assistance if necessary.

Coffee Sunday

The October 5th, Coffee Sunday will once again be hosted by the Friends of Corpus Christi. If you'd like to make a tasty morsel to pass; please bring it with you and drop it off before Mass. Any homemade baked goods are always appreciated. If you have some time we could always use help serving or to tidy up. That's always welcome. If you have ever left a dish or serving bowl at the Kolbe Center, this would be a great opportunity to see if it is still there.

The organizers of Coffee Sunday are looking for someone to host November or December's Coffee Sunday. If you are interested please call the office. Thank you.

Blessing of the Animals

Also on October 5th, after the 11:30 a.m. Mass Father will bless animals in the parking lot of the Church. This is always a beautiful and touching little ceremony, don't miss it. Bring you feathered, furry or scaly friend for this special blessing. This is an event that many of our parishioners look forward to every year.

Retreats

According to the Constitution of the Pauline Fathers, each priest and brother must have a week of religious retreats, during the year. This year, Fr. Mariusz will be absent in Buffalo between Oct. 12th till 18th.

A Note from the Diocese

In December 2014, the Diocese of Buffalo will launch the Catholics Come Home campaign. In the first six years, Catholics Come Home has aired invitational messages as "evangommercials" in 37 dioceses and nationally, reaching 200 million viewers, thereby helping lead hundreds of thousands home to the Catholic Church. This campaign constitutes a significant expression of our commitment to empowering Catholics for the new evangelization in this diocese.

At the conclusion of the Year of Faith, the Bishop appointed a diocesan commission for promotion of new evangelization. Recently, at the convocation of priests, they considered the importance of new evangelization, with the help of Fr. Frank DeSiano, CSP. Since then, the diocese has directed Dennis Mahaney, in the newly renamed Office of Evangelization and Parish Life, to concentrate his efforts on supporting parish evangelization efforts. The Bishop is asking you join him in the next step—a partnership with Catholics Come Home campaign that will begin around Christmas. We will keep you informed of any updates that come through the office.
