Gas & Electric Fund Update

Corpus Christi is very grateful for everyone's donation to help heat our buildings during this frigid winter that has gripped us hard. This week we have stapled a Gas & Electric Winter Fund envelope to the bulletin. If you have already donated thank you, thank you, thank you. Many of you have noticed the Church is considerably warmer because of these early donations. We have tried to make things easier for you so if you have not donated yet, please consider using this envelope. Drop it in the church collection basket at Mass, or you can mail it in. This week's totals are $ 10,563.33 or 18% of the goal of $60,000.

Bl. Eusebius of Esztergom

Eusebius was born in Esztergom in the Kingdom of Hungary around 1200. He came from a wealthy, well to do family. He received his Ordination in the cathedral in Esztergom as a Canon Regular of Saint Augustine. In 1216, he received permission from the bishop to leave the cathedral and he began a hermitage in Pilis. In 1246, more of his brother canons and other hermits along the river Danube lived with him near Pilisszántó.

Around 1250 he founded the first real Pauline community at the monastery of the Holy Cross, where they adopted the rule hermits from the monastery of St. James in Patach (founded in 1215 by Bishop Bartholomew of Pécs). In 1256 he was elected the first Provincial of the Order. In 1262 he asked the Pope Urban IV established for the approval of the religious community, where they were given a temporal approval. On December 13, 1308 Cardinal Gentilis, as a legate of Pope Clement V, travelled from Rome to Hungary to grant the approval, and on this day he also bestowed the rule of Saint Augustine on behalf of the Holy See. A year later, the first monastic constitutions were approved.

Eusebius died on January 20, 1270, in the Monastery of the Holy Cross in Pilisszentkereszt. He was buried interred in the Monastery crypt. During the 150 years of Turkish occupation in Hungary, the Church and Monastery of the Holy Cross, including his tomb, was destroyed.

On November 16, 2004 the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, in approving the new liturgical calendar of the Pauline Order, authorized the inclusion of the 20 January at the feast of Bl. Eusebius of Esztergom. It is noteworthy to mention that due to the close relation between the Hungarian people and the Order of Saint Paul the First Hermit, Blessed Eusebius was always referred to by the people as Blessed not long after his death and to this very day.

Pope Francis' World Day of Peace

Pope Francis' World Day of Peace message on January First was entitled "No longer Slaves, but Brothers and Sisters," which should remind all followers of Jesus that human trafficking is a crime against humanity and that we, who are brothers and sisters to all, need to care for our brothers and sisters who are kept in slavery throughout our world. To learn more about the Catholic Church's response to this issue, go to www.usccb.org/anti-trafficking. The Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace and the International Union of Superiors General has designated February 8th, as the international day of prayer and awareness against human trafficking, that the dignity of all God's children will be protected, we pray to the Lord.
